Title: The Storm

I was awoken by a crashing noise outside my bedroom window. 'Oh no... not the Tree' I thought. I climbed out of my nice warm bed and went to look out my window. The tree had been struck by lightening, just as I thought. It had broken in half. The top half had crashed on to the ground and left a broken stump. As the lightening flashed again I thought I saw a figure. Someone was climbing out from the tree stump. It looked like giant caterpillar.

But maybe it was a giant person but it could have been a giant beast. As it turned out, it was all of the above! It was a giant person wearing a giant caterpillar on his head and together they looked like a giant hairy beast!! As I watched it's ears got bigger and bigger. I could not believe my eyes. Then the ears became very colourful. I could see blue, red, orange and black stripes. Then the ears began to move up and down.

It walked towards me - I was very scared. It grew very enormous teeth and very sharp claws. I thought it was a nightmare. I closed the curtains with a big swish and I saw his shadow stop outside! I thought it was going to eat me..... But it was not that, his teeth where made of jelly. When he came in, he was very nice. His dad was very mean though, he tried to eat everyone. He was only scary Jack from mars accompanied by scary Barbara. Fran was sweating like a beautiful model from Tallaght, thinking about the world.

While beautiful FRAN was sweating, outside under the bridge a sinister crazy woman was hatching a plan tokill the monsters that were eating all that was around the deep dark cold forest.....there would be no vegetation left around the village of GOODNEST.....

They wanted to use a frog to kill the monsters. They got a big frog that smelled like a candle. But the monsters ate the frog: "Om-nom-nom-nom". The monsters ate all the people except for me. It was very lonely, but at least the monsters went away. I found a tiny pirate ship full of bug pirates wearing pirate hats and eye-patches. I stepped on the pirate captain by accident. I drew a map for the bug pirates and took the tiny pirate captain to the bug hospital.

He got an x-ray and all his bug bones were broken. And he was dead. He came back to life and ate the little girl and said "that'll hit the spot"!!! Then I went away from the ship and saw that all the trees were falling down and suddenly a giant bug bigger than me, it looked a bit like a wasp .

The giant bug wanted to crawl in the dark forest. A big monster came. The girl monster was called Hilly. She crept up for a long drink and then another big monster came. It was a boy monster called Silly. They just talked about the boy monster. The giant bug came up for dinner. Hilly ate the bug and a tyre. Then Hilly came out of the forest for another drink because the morning star glowed up to the monster.

She chased me into a haunted forest. A giant bug came out of two narrow trees. It was the monster's brother. They both chased me all the way out of the haunted forest into a field where there were even more monsters. A monster came out of a tree and said "Yum yum". "Don't eat me" I said, and I ran all the way home. Was I dreaming? Of other monsters eating me... Pink monsters, purple monsters all chasing me.

The monsters got the girl and they were about to put her into his mouth, but the giant frog jumped out and saved her from the monsters mouth and saved her life!
