

Sunday 11th November Group Story

Title: My Neighbour the Superhero

Annie from number 7 across the road didn't really look like a superhero. In fact she was only 4ft 8" and had very skinny legs with knobbly knees! She was clever. Nobody knew she was a super hero she kept it a secret. She would save cats from trees when they could not get back down and had used up their 9 lives, she would help grannies cross the street and she would clean the dishes everyday...but that was not her superpower! Her superpower was ...

She could turn in to a cookie! But she had an evil twin she could turn in to a healthy cookie!!!

One day when Annie was watching TV, her evil twin did something terrible... she actually binned their Mum's favourite book. The problem was that their Mum didn't notice. Luckily Annie noticed.

Annie tried, tried and tried to tell their Mum but their Mum just did not believe her.

Annie had no choice but she had to use her superpower, and that's what she did. She put herself into the cookie-box.

When it was tea-time, they could not find Annie but, they thought that she was at the Sunday-ball so, they had tea without her. When Annie's evil twin reached for a cookie, and was about to eat it, the cookie said to her 'get Mum's book out of the garbage, at once!'

The evil twin dropped the cookie on the floor, it broke in two and Annie came out. The evil twin disappeared in a poof of smoke... Annie wasn't a cookie anymore and she was able to find her Mum's favourite book... When she started reading it something unexpected happened.....