Title: My Puppy saved Santa

I'm Percy, I have an amazing puppy called Biggles, and this is the story of how he saved Santa. It was late on Christmas Eve and I was so excited for my presents. I was so excited that I couldn't sleep so I went to get a glass of water downstairs. Mom and Dad said don't look or even peek but I was so excited I couldn't help myself. I saw Santa struggling trying to get down the chimney. I was so surprised when I saw my dog helping Santa!

Santa, out of the corner of his eye saw me standing in the door way in my pyjamas. Santa whispered , "Percy, go to bed. Tomorrow is a big day". Shocked and surprised seeing Santa in my living room, I crept upstairs to bed. I slipped in under the duvet and suddenly remembered my puppy Biggles was still in the living room. My Dad was helping Santa back up the chimney but just when he nearly got to the top, I walked back in to get Biggles.

Suddenly, I heard a big bang!

Santa had fallen back down the chimney! And guess what, he hurt his big toe. I helped Santa take off his boot and sock and his toe was all red and swollen. Then Biggles started to lick Santa's toe, and slowly the swelling started to go down. Santa was able to head off on his journey to all the other houses. Biggles saved Santa!!!

MOLLY, HARRY AND HANNA came over to my house the next day; they are all my best friends.
