

CLANN LIR

Branar Téatar do Pháistí, Galway
@ The Ark, Temple Bar.

A beautiful re-telling of the ancient tale of Clann Lir, told through both Irish & English

Schools performances: 16 Apr - 20 April
Public performances: Sat 20 April 2pm & 4pm

The Ark is delighted to welcome Branar Téatar do Pháistí to Dublin with their beautiful production of Clann Lir. Based in Galway, Branar have been producing work since 2001 which has captivated audiences both young and old. Branar's shows combine storytelling, music and puppetry to create a very special theatrical experience.

A father's love for his children is at the heart of this beautiful re-telling of the ancient tale of Clann Lir. Told mainly through Irish with puppetry, vivid imagery and enchanting newly-composed traditional music, this fairytale-like story of magical transformations will leave children spell-bound, regardless of their Irish-language ability. 45 minutes duration. Ideally suited to 6-10 year olds

Tá grá athar dá pháistí ag croílár na hathinsnte seo den sean scéal clúiteach Clann Lir. Insítear an scéal draíochta seo le puipéadóireacht, íomhánna fuinniúla agus ceol Aoibhinn nua-chumtha.

Directed by Marc Mac Lochlainn. Music by Micheal Chang & Freda Nic Giolla Chatháil

Original production developed with help of Deis funding

Tickets (schools performances) €6.50/€4.50 concessions for DEIS schools and schools travelling from outside Dublin

Public performance tickets €10/€8 concessions (see www.ark.ie re concessions)

Booking: www.ark.ie t:01 670 7788

The Ark gratefully acknowledges the support of its principal funder the Arts Council and also its other annual supporters: the Department of Education and Skills, Temple Bar Cultural Trust, and Dublin City Council.

For more information on Branar Theatre Company go to <http://branar.ie/main/>

Press information: