

by Elaine May & MayKay with The SuperTones children's choir

When you look back one day
What will you say?
Did you look away?

We're watching from the back row
We know things nobody else knows
We've been asking questions
While you have all been guessing

We're sitting in the back row
And there is one thing that we know
We're here with a confession

Now's the hour
Lift your voice
You know your power
HEY!

Listen, make way

We'll be running this world one day

Gotta stand up and say

We'll be seen and be heard in our own way

Gonna hear us today

We are here and we're able

So listen, make way

To take a seat at the table

When you look back one day

What will you say?

Did you look away?

Now we're sitting in the front row and we want to know (Yeah we know to know)

When you look back one day, look back one day, what will you say?

"Adults should listen to kids more - We have good ideas too"

"We shouldn't be scared to speak up about things that will affect our future"

"We want to share our ideas - We need people to listen to us"

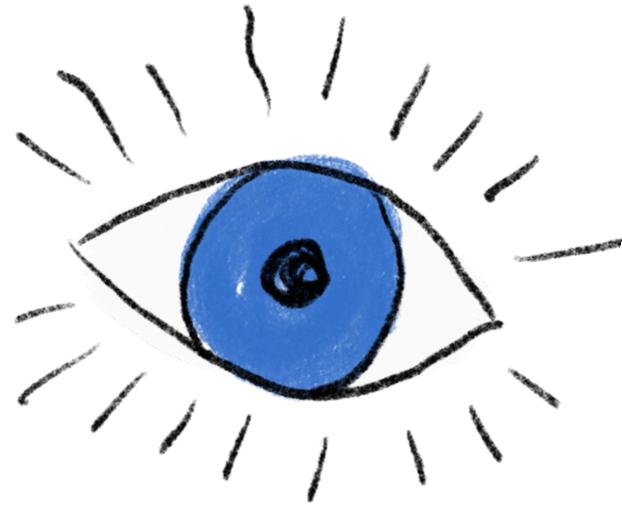

Now's the hour

Lift your voice

You know your power

HEY!

Listen, make way
We'll be running this world one day
Gotta stand up and say
We'll be seen and be heard in our own way
Gonna hear us today
We are here and we're able
So listen, make way
To take a seat at the table

"Some people say that children should be seen and not heard but I think they should be heard and seen"

"What Will You Say?" by Elaine May & MayKay with The SuperTones children's choir was commissioned by The Ark for the Right Here Right Now Rally 2023. Listen online here now.

An Roinn Turasóireachta, Cultúir,
Ealaíon, Gaeltachta, Spóirt agus Meán
Department of Tourism, Culture,
Arts, Gaeltacht, Sport and Media

Community
Foundation
Ireland

